BECKER JURY IS FILLED

Last Man Chosen This Afternoon At 3:45
O'clock

COCKRAN NOT IN COURT

Not Known Whether He Has Withdrawn From Counsel for Defense—
Becker Appears in New Spring Suit—Has Visit
With Wife.

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, May 8.—The jury for the second trial of former Police Lieut. Charles S. Becker for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, was completed at 3:45 o'clock this afternoon. The twelfth man in the box was Gilbert Shaul, a manufacturer.

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, May 8.—Four jurors were added to the six already in the box after an hour and a half's examination of talesmen at the forenoon session of the trial of Charles S. Becker for the murder of Herman Rosenthal. With ten men selected at noon, it was considered probable that the list would be completed before today's adjournment.

No mention was made during the early proceedings of the reported move to have W. Bourke Cockran, of counsel for the defense, held in contempt of court for a remark attributed to him. He had been quoted as saying: "It is not a trial; it is an assassination."

Mr. Cockran was not in court. Whether he had permanently withdrawn from the case was not announced.

Dio L. Holbrook, a marine engineer, was chosen as juror number ten. Becker, former lieutenant of police, appeared in a new spring suit at the opening of the third day of his new trial. Because he had not been allowed to receive his wife in the Tombs he came into the court room a half hour before the forenoon session opened to talk to her. The pair drew away from others in the room and talked in low tones. At 10:30 o'clock the work of selecting the six men to complete the jury was resumed. The tenth talesman examined was Paul D. Camors, a bond salesman. He was accepted as juror number seven.

The third section of 100 of the 300 talesmen drawn for the trial reported in court today. Meanwhile another panel of 100 names was being drawn at the order of Justice Seabury. This will make a total of 400 talesmen, fifty more than were drawn for the first Becker trial.

Steam Gathers In Flue And Explosion Seriously Injures Robert Martin

Robert Martin, aged 26, a member of the firm of Clunis & Martin, funeral directors, with offices in the Avalon building, corner Fifth and West Main streets, was seriously injured in a gas explosion at 5 o'clock Thursday evening. The details of the accident were given this morning by Raymond Coyle, the firm's chauffeur, who drives the motor ambulance, who was on the scene soon after the accident occurred.

Mr. Martin had had charge of the furnace in the Avalon building nearly all the past winter. It is situated nearly directly under the office of Clunis & Martin, and gas is used as fuel, the main flue passing up on the west side of the office. The injured man had lighted the fire in the furnace, probably three-quarters of an hour before the accident, and in response to requests from other tenants of the building, went into the cellar to turn on more heat.

He opened the furnace door, which act was instantly followed by a terrific explosion, heard and felt throughout the entire building and for nearly a block away. The force of the explosion hurled Martin backward for fifteen feet, and the flames struck him fairly in the face as he stooped over the furnace door.

Although his face was fearfully burned, and he was nearly blinded by pain and injury, he managed to get up to the office and into the back room, where he was found almost immediately by those who ran in, attracted by the explosion. Among these was the chauffeur, Coyle, who was over half a square away, and ran back when he heard the noise.

Coyle instantly realized that his employer was badly hurt, and put him in the ambulance which stood in front and hurried him to the Sanitarium. Dr. J. G. Shirer happened to be there and immediately gave him attention to the injuries of Martin.

MARINE HEROES EULOGIZED IN SENATE TODAY

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, May 8.—Senator James Hamilton Lewis spoke today in eulogy of those who fell in the first fighting at Vera Cruz.

"Behold them!" exclaimed the senator, "the first four completing the ever-present mystic square, personifying all—"

Daniel Haggerty, an Irishman, a descendant of those who marched with Patrick Cleburne from the south and Phil Sheridan from the north.

"John Schumacher, the German, the descendant of those who fought for us under Steuben."

George Poinsett of the generation of those who marched with Lafayette.

"And Samuel Meisenberg, the Jew, the child of a people without a country, but now a son saluted by every nation."

"We call to the watching world to attest to the civilization of men the attachment of America for her children and the praise and triumph she ever pays to the hero who serves her cause."

CO. G. READY TO LEAVE ON SHORT NOTICE

While no new orders have been received here by Captain Priest regarding probable movement of state troops, Company G could entrain in an hour should the war department decide to call on Governor Cox for a detachment of Ohio troops for Mexican service.

A National Guard inspector from Columbus visited the city Monday night, inspected the local company and its equipment and found everything in first class condition.

With the company's present strength and the long list of names attached to the enlistment agreement, which was made provisional in case of war with Mexico, the company could be placed on a war basis in very few hours.

ROBBER SHOT BY PROPRIETOR OF JEWELRY STORE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Cleveland, O., May 8.—A man who attempted to rob the Max White jewelry store, St. Clair avenue, was shot and wounded twice by the proprietor today.

When shot the robber ran out of the store and escaped, threatening with a revolver persons who tried to stop him.

The man entered the store asking to see some watches. White turned to get a tray the robber covered him with a revolver.

The jeweler sprang out from behind the counter and grappled with the robber. He succeeded in wrenching a gun from the holdup man's grasp and fired into the robber's body. When shot the robber turned and ran. White followed and shot him again.

After they were dressed, he was taken to his flat in the Avalon, second floor, where he lives with his wife and two children, aged four years and eight months.

Dr. Shirer is of opinion that Mr. Martin did not inhale the flames to an extent which would raise fatal complications, in which case the patient will probably recover. But the entire face, eyelids, forehead, mouth and ears are terribly burned. It is however hoped that the sight is not permanently injured.

The brick flue about three feet across the face, from floor to ceiling at the west side of the Clunis & Martin office, was blown out in many cases the bricks being literally torn in half by the force of the explosion. The debris was scattered all over the office in every direction, and it was very fortunate that just at the time there was no one there, for it is hardly possible that a person could have escaped death or serious injury.

The cause of the explosion was given by Homer R. Rogers, superintendent of the Natural Gas company. He said that as there had been no heat in the furnace for a week or ten days, the flue had accumulated dampness, which turned to steam when a fire was started in the furnace. When Mr. Martin opened the furnace door allowing an influx of oxygen, this steam and accumulated gas expanded too quickly to find the proper vent, and blew out the flue, the flareback coming out the furnace door.

The injured man is attended by one of the trained nurses from the Sanitarium, and everything is being done to make him as comfortable as possible, but he passed a very restless night, and was suffering considerably from the reaction Friday morning.

The furnace was not injured, nor was the fire put out by the explosion.

BROUGHT IN 200 BARREL OIL WELL

One of the best oil wells ever struck in the Hanover and Hopewell townships near Black Hand, was shot on the J. S. Loughman farm near Black Hand late Thursday afternoon, which proved a gusher for the Columbus Oil and Fuel company. It is said the well showed an average flow of 200 barrels during the first 24 hours, flowing an average of fifty barrels an hour for the first three hours and 90 barrels the next five hours. The large tanks were filled with the first flow of oil and before the next connection could be made about 25 barrels poured over the ground. The well was drilled in on Wednesday. The Columbus company holds most of the leases around Black Hand and on down toward Gratiot.

Newton, he said he would arrive in Newark on May 11, when he would inspect the different sites for the new federal building.

MYSTERIOUS NOTE PROMPTS SHERIFF TO INVESTIGATE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Springfield, O., May 8.—Working on a theory that a murder has been committed, following the finding of a note and map, Sheriff E. F. Funderburg and assistants are digging on a farm just west of Springfield today in an effort to locate the body of the victim of the alleged crime. A note was found saying: "Follow directions on map and you will be rewarded. This is no bluff. I have skipped on the Erie." Signed G. C. P., April 10, 1914. The map gives an exact description of the place and marks a stump saying "body located here."

Owing to the air of mystery contained in the note, Sheriff Funderburg declares it is his duty to make an investigation. He was also prompted to proceed with the investigation by reason of the fact that two or three persons have disappeared from their homes here in the last month.

The note was found by Harold White on his father's farm.

MAN AND WIFE GET BIG SUMS BY MAIL FRAUD

(Associated Press Telegram)
Boston, May 8.—Francis H. Griffin, 47, a New York attorney, and his wife, Clara H. Griffin, 42, were arrested today charged with using the mails to defraud. Government officials claim that by fraudulent representations the Griffins have obtained between $300,000 and $500,000.

It is charged that Mrs. Griffin represented to many persons that she had contracts for stenographic work in connection with the anti-trust prosecutions by federal and state authorities. Owing to the secrecy attending such investigations, Mrs. Griffin claimed, it is charged, that she was unable to obtain from banks the funds needed to carry out her contracts. She represented her expenses as heavy, but profits large.

It is charged that Mrs. Griffin obtained the desired funds from individuals, though she had no contracts as represented. One man, whose name is withheld, supplied $100,000, and two others furnished $40,000 each, it is asserted.

Activities In War Department Began Last Night Upon Receipt of Confidential Advices From General Funston At Vera Cruz

MILITARY PREPARATIONS RUSHED AT WASHINGTON

Huerta Objects to Landing of Troops and War Material
On Mexican Territory During Armistice and South
American Mediators Carry News to the President—
Special Meeting of the Cabinet Now in Session—
Federal Executive Has Placed Stumbling Block In Way of Peaceful Settlement.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, May 8.—The Mexican situation assumed a more warlike aspect today. Activities in the war department which began last night on the receipt of long confidential advices from General Funston, were renewed this morning and were brought to the attention of President Wilson and the cabinet when the regular session began at 11 o'clock. There was possibly an early movement calling of the Ohio National Guard as a result of the crisis.

While this activity disclosed that every preparation was being made for possible eventualities, yet Secretary of War Garrison said just before entering the cabinet meeting that no "additional troops movements have been ordered."

In the midst of military preparations, came definite word that the mediating envoys had received from General Huerta, and submitted to the United States government, complaint that new landing of American troops and war material at Vera Cruz amounted to a breaking of the armistice which had been arranged by the South American diplomats after their good offices in the Mexican crisis had been accepted by General Huerta and the United States. This also was one of the subjects before the cabinet. Secretary Bryan stated early in the day that the mediators note had been received by him and that reply would be made. Meantime it was authoritatively learned from a source close to the mediators that they are of the opinion that they will be able to persuade General Huerta that the United States has not been violating, in spirit at least, the armistice which had been agreed upon. Otherwise, a stumbling block would be placed in their way, which might render virtually useless their future efforts at mediation.

The note from General Huerta alleging violation by the United States of the armistice, it was ascertained, reached the mediators, who are working in the utmost possible secrecy, day before yesterday, and was presented by them at once to Secretary Bryan. The mediators themselves declined to comment in any way on the matter but it is known that they are proceeding with their peace plan as if nothing untoward had happened, expecting to see the armistice controversy cleared away soon. They were in conference during the day discussing their plan which is to include, it has been learned, the constitutional side of the Mexican problem and the pacification of all Mexico.

In connection with the military preparations for a possible forward movement it became known that the officials of the war department have been in long distance telephone communication with the governors of Ohio, New York and Pennsylvania in an effort to determine how soon the militia organizations of those states could be mobilized and sent to the seaboard for shipment in transports.

The department has been energetic in its efforts to make all preparations for the possible mobilization of the national guard for some time. Latest inquiries of the department were directed toward ascertaining how soon the New York, Ohio and Pennsylvania troops could be put in motion, in their present condition, without delay that would be necessitated by recruiting them up to full war strength. In the theoretical organization of the militia the Pennsylvania and New York state each make up a full tactical division. They are the only states supplying a full division quota.

Ohio combines with Michigan to fill a division and the other divisions are made up of several states each. A delegation of Tampico oil men who yesterday conferred with Secretary of the Navy Daniels today visited Secretary of State Bryan and urged measures for the protection of the oil properties in the disturbed district around Tampico. The conference was extended and while it was on, Charge Nelson O'Shaughnessy, who called at the state department, was unable to see the secretary. He left, saying he would return later in the day.

The British ambassador also conferred with Secretary Bryan as to conditions at Tampico and as to negotiations which might insure the safety of the oil properties and oil company employees.

The British embassy here has made representations to Mexico City in behalf of the American and English employed in the oil districts in and about Tampico. These foreigners when they attempted to land and resume their work were driven off with threats. There has been no response from the Mexican officials.

It has been learned on high authority that the war department had under consideration today early and adequate reinforcement of the command of General Funston at Vera Cruz to carry out any movement that might be necessary to the interior of Mexico. The question of placing a large force of Americans in Vera Cruz, that would be strong enough to defend that port against any possible campaign against Mexico City was later laid before the President and his cabinet by Secretary of War Garrison.

War department officials, it was stated, decided that reinforcements were needed at Vera Cruz at the late conference of Secretary Garrison and the general staff last night. The secretary and his advisers went over the entire military situation at Vera Cruz and other points in Mexico before reaching this decision.

Secretary Garrison called the conference after a cipher telegram from Vera Cruz had been delivered to him at the White House where he was attending the wedding of the president's daughter. He left the festivities hurriedly and summoned his aides to the war department. Among dispatches received was one which reported the firing of two oil wells at Tampico. The protection of American lives and property, it was stated, was the prime motive behind the determination of the army and navy officers that the American forces in Mexico should be reinforced.

Secretary Garrison declined to discuss the situation, nor would he comment on his conference with the staff officers last night further than to say that he laid before them a report from General Funston.

In this report, it was said, General Funston had embodied accounts brought to Vera Cruz by refugees arriving from Mexico City concerning the situation in the capital. Garrison would not reveal the character of these reports.

"All that I can say is that no additional troop movements have been ordered," said Secretary Garrison, adding that he would make no prediction concerning future orders.

WOULD HAVE TROOPS READY FOR ADVANCE ON MEXICAN CAPITAL

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, May 8.—A long cipher telegram from General Funston at Vera Cruz that stirred the second staff of the army into a conference that did not break up until nearly midnight was to be placed before the president and his cabinet today by Secretary Garrison. While details of the dispatch were not given out, it was understood to contain reports taken to General Funston by refugees from Mexico City. Secretary Garrison said today no aggressive movement of any kind by the American forces was ordered, yet, it was known that high officials of the war department were anxious to station at Vera Cruz or on ships within striking distance of that port a force powerful enough to make a swift ascent on Mexico City if

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

Look years younger! Use the old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and nobody will know.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.

This is the age of youth. Gray haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur tonight and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance with a few days. Agents, Hall's drug store.

"Granny" Elben, police court regular, drew a fine of $50 and costs in police court Friday morning and was sentenced to the Columbus workhouse to serve out the sentence. He was arrested Thursday night by Patrolmen Swinehart and Richter, on a charge of drunk and begging. He will make his third trip to Columbus probably Monday.

Granville, May 8.—William McGaw, a contractor fell from the roof of a new house being built by Henry Jones, and alighted on his head. It was feared his skull was fractured, but Dr. C. J. Loveless is of the opinion that his injuries will not result seriously.

SAVES ELDERLY PEOPLE FROM KIDNEY AND BLADDER MISERIES

Sleep Disturbing Bladder Weaknesses, Backache, Stiff Joints, Rheumatic Pains Disappear After Few Doses Are Taken.

While people along in years are naturally more subject to weak kidneys, they can avoid the tortures of backache, and rheumatism, and be saved the annoyance of getting up at night with disagreeable bladder disorders, for the new discovery, Croxone, quickly relieves the most severe and obstinate cases.

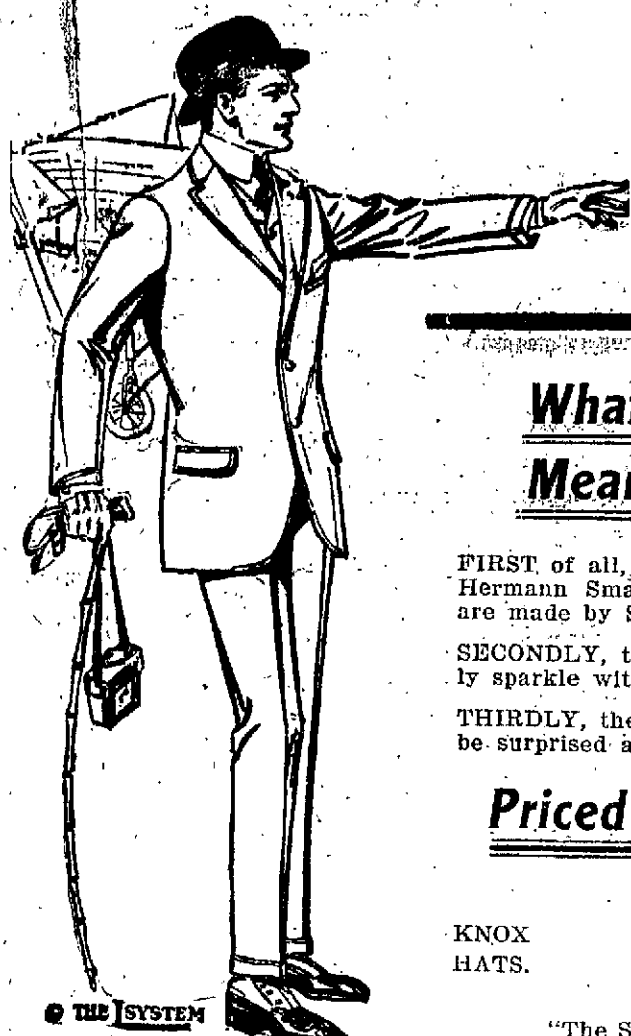

Croxone cures these conditions because it removes the cause. It is the most wonderful remedy ever devised for ridding the system of uric acid. It is entirely different from all other remedies. It is not like anything else ever used for the purpose. Croxone makes the kidneys filter the blood and sift out all the poisonous acids and waste matter that cause these troubles.

It soaks right in and cleans out the stopped-up inactive kidneys like water does a sponge, dissolves, and drives out every particle of uric acid and other poisonous impurities that lodge in the joints and muscles and cause rheumatism. It neutralizes the uric acid so it no longer irritates the bladder, overcomes unnecessary breaking of sleep and restores the kidneys and bladder to health and strength.

It matters not how long you have suffered, how old you are, or what else you have used. The very principle of Croxone is such that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. There is nothing else on earth like it. It starts to work the minute you take it and relieves you the first time you use it, and all your misery and suffering soon disappear. You can secure an original package of Croxone at trifling cost from any first-class druggist. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if it fails in a single case.

Court of Appeals Considering Cases
 Which Have Been Submitted
 During Week—Court News.

The Court of Appeals spent Friday considering Licking county cases which have been submitted during the week and it is now expected that the rate suit of the city of Newark vs. the Newark Natural Gas & Fuel company will come up for argument next Tuesday.

This is the suit in which the city seeks to restrain the gas company from maintaining its increased rate for gas.

The court late Thursday heard the error case of Frank Lanehart vs. Mary M. Eggleston. This is a suit in which Mrs. Eggleston recovered a verdict of $750 in Common Pleas court. She was riding in her buggy near Granville when her horse took fright at Lanehart's automobile and threw her out of the carriage. Lanehart now seeks to have the Common Pleas verdict set aside and a new trial granted.

Counsel also submitted the case of the Columbus Natural Gas company vs. J. W. Dunlap, et al., involving construction of a gas lease.

Argued Case in Columbus. Attorney Oederic Jones, of Jones & Jones, and other Newark lawyers interested, were in Columbus Friday arguing the case of Peck vs. Rider before the master commission appointed by the Court of Appeals. The case involves distribution of proceeds from the sale of the old Rider property situated in Hudson avenue. A partition was allowed in Common Pleas court in answer to a petition filed three years ago by Frances Peck, one of the heirs. One of the heirs then came in with the allegation that he had purchased the interest of another heir, and out of the tangle came the present suit.

 REINDEER LODGE

Contracts have been entered into by trustees of Newark lodge, 518, of The Order of Reindeer, whereby the big Mack's United Shows will appear in Newark the week of May 13. It is expected the Jefferson street grounds will be chosen as the location for the attraction.

The company is showing this week in Marion, O., and will appear in Columbus next week. The shows come here with the highest endorsements, guaranteeing clean, moral attractions, and featuring Buckskin Ben's Wild West, with a big company of skilled riders, lariat throwers and all-round entertainers in the ways of the western folk. There are ten excellent paid attractions, affording a complete evening's entertainment.

Two big free acts, and two bands, one of which, the Italian concert band, is heralded as one of the best on tour, will afford plenty of entertainment without charge. The company will give daily parades and free band concert on the downtown streets every noon and night. Ben Walcott, advance representative, is now arranging details of the appearance in Newark.

SCHOOL BONDS REJECTED BY HIGH BIDDER

Again the issue of $20,000 Newark school bonds has been turned down. Notice to this effect has been forwarded to Clerk S. W. Haight of the board of education from the Ohio National bank, of Columbus, awarded the bonds as the highest bidder a few days ago.

The Columbus bank requested return of its certified check of $300, an explained rejection of the bonds on the contention that they were issued under statutes which have been repealed and hence their legality would be gravely doubtful. The bank had offered a premium of $907.50.

A special meeting of the board of education was called Thursday night and the letter from the Columbus bank was referred to City Solicitor Norpell. Meanwhile, it is probable the issue will be offered to Sidney Spitzer & Co., of Toledo, which was next highest bidder, offering a premium of $825.

This is the second time this issue has been rejected. On a former occasion Farson Sons Company, of Chicago, was awarded the bonds, later turning them down and requesting return of its check.

Radium in Germany is quoted at $3,000,000 an ounce, troy weight.

The whole doctrine of Devoe Lead and Zinc Paint turns on these three points:

1. It is all paint and true paint.
2. It is strongest, and goes-farthest paint.
3. It is full measure.

Because these three things are true, Devoe Lead-and-Zinc Paint takes least gallons for the job; looks best all the time; lasts longer.

There is no such argument for any other paint; there is no other such paint; the man who uses Devoe gets the best he can get in paint.

Farce and Humbuggery

A $50 fine was the sole product of the indictments returned at Columbus some time ago by Prosecuting Attorney Turner, of Franklin county, Republican candidate for attorney general, and about which there was a great hullabaloo throughout the state by standpat Republicans.

Upon the advice of his counsel William L. Finley, chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee, Tuesday entered a plea of guilty to a technical violation of the state civil service law and was fined $50 and costs. The other persons indicted with him—Emory Lattanner, bank superintendent, his chief clerk Merle Goller, and A. V. Abernethy, secretary of the State Tax Commission—were freed. On entering his plea Mr. Finley thus addressed the court:

"I am not a lawyer. Neither am I a public officer. The act under which I was indicted did not go into full effect until Jan. 1 of this year. The acts complained of occurred shortly afterwards. I was not familiar with the status. It is not yet well understood even by lawyers. There is a wide difference of opinion among good lawyers as to whether or not any of the acts charged in the indictment are prohibited by the civil service law.

"Certainly none of these acts has heretofore been regarded as wrong either legally or normally, and if they are wrong now, it is purely by virtue of the recent legislative enactment. The bureau with which I was connected sent out weekly letters, which were published in numerous newspapers, Republican as well as Democratic. These publications related to measures recommended, and to statutes passed, as well as their operation as administered by various public agencies.

"The purpose was commendable. The expenses incurred were legitimate. For this purpose the money

May 8 In American History.

1814—The first steam ferryboat service between New York and Brooklyn was installed.

1864—The advance column of General R. E. Lee's army seized the heights at Spottsylvania, driving off General Sheridan's Federal cavalry. Lee's army began its retreat.

1902—Volcanic disasters in the islands of Martinique and St. Vincent. The eruption of Mount Pelee destroyed 30,000 lives at St. Pierre.

sumed that I would be willing to submit to the plea of technical guilt in order to save three public officials from the expense and the anxiety of trials in the courts on indictments for alleged misdemeanors. A Democratic press bureau was maintained for the exclusive purpose of preserving the workmen's compensation and the Warnes laws.

"Inasmuch as it was incidentally embarrassing to the selfish ambitions of Turner—who wants to become attorney general—he made common cause with the Equity Association in Cleveland and took advantage of what everyone knows is a mere technicality in order to embarrass me. He has deliberately made use of the machinery of the courts for the purpose of venting a political spite.

"If he went into this thing in good faith, then public officials, as well as a political manager, all charged with the same offense, should have been treated alike. And yet when Turner's real purpose of finding a goat was manifest, I was willing to play the part and take the public officials from his clutches. At the same time I feel a public service was rendered in that the real Turner was exhibited in all his humbuggery and insincerity, and the people now know the sort of a man who would take into his hands the great machinery of the state.

"Not a single element of moral turpitude enters into this charge. The day is not far distant when my friends will recall with pride the fact that I was the first victim of the cabal of conspirators who sought to overthrow the progressive laws of the present administration and was haled into court and fined for the conduct of a press bureau in defense of the workingman and the small home owners of this state.

"The sentiment in the capital city of our state toward the indictments for alleged violations of the civil service law is reflected in editorial in the Wednesday, May 6, edition of The Ohio State Journal, the strongest Republican paper in Ohio, and the only in Columbus, which reads:

"Based on the expectations created by Prosecuting Attorney Turner, when indictments were returned some time ago for the alleged violations of the civil service law, the outcome is very disappointing, to say the least.

"On the face of things the proceedings were begun for the purpose of cleansing the public service, and now Mr. Turner nollies the indictments against every public officer under charge and accepts, apparently as a vindication of the law, the plea of Mr. Finley to a technical violation. In other words, the prosecutor lets the whole thing drop when he accepts without a contest the Finley plea. This shows either that Mr. Turner was playing a political game and using the machinery of the courts in his row with an opposing politician; or that he had the indictments returned without any hope whatsoever of conviction before a jury, and that is poor business.

"The whole thing ends in a farce, and what the public service has gained by it we cannot see. If it were a mere technicality upon which the indictments were returned, then they should never have been found. If that were not the case, then the indictments should not have been nollied. It looks as if Mr. Turner carried his fight with Mr. Finley, seemingly a mere political scrap, into the grand jury room, and the travesty now enacted is not pleasing to his friends."

"His bad faith in the whole thing is shown by his willingness to nolle indictments against public officials in order to fasten a plea of guilt on a technicality against me. That he brought the names of three public officers into disrepute and subjected their families to heartaches and worries for the purpose, as is now apparent, of making those indictments trading stock against me, is to be expected from him. He gloats on blood. A taste of mine may temporarily satisfy a perverted taste.

"When my books were submitted to him voluntarily, showing where every dollar had come from and where every dollar had been spent, he knew that the best he could gain would be a hung jury, probably divided on political lines, and he measured me correctly when he as-

Here's Mrs. McAdoo, White House Bride, in Wedding Gown.

The wedding gown worn by Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson is made of ivory white satin and trimmed with real old point lace. This charming creation is the principal part of a trousseau made by Kuylen, Fifth avenue, New York.

The bodice is softly draped with satin, which crosses in front and is brought to a point below the shoulders, front and back. The V-shaped neck is finished with folds of soft tuile. The long mousquetaire sleeves are made of tulle. The real old point lace is gracefully draped over the right shoulder to the left side of the waist and is fastened with a spray of orange blossoms. The lace then continues as a border to the long transparent tulle of tulle, which graduates to the side of the skirt at the train. The long sweeping train is three and a half yards in length. A cap effect bridal wreath especially executed by Kurzman with orange blossoms and long draped veil was very effective.

Much interest is placed in the real old point lace used on the gown. It is a masterpiece and a work of art in lace making. Unique in design and perfect in execution, it may well be said that this famous art treasure, which is a part of a world-famous collection, may justly find its place as an antique in a national collection.

The Dry Navy.

John Barleycorn feels tired, by golly! They've fired Old Red Eye from the navy, and now the brave old salt will fill himself with "soft" water when he goes forth to scenes of slaughter, and not depend on malt. Our ships go cruising here and yonder, and whosoever they may wander, in tempest calm or fog on gullboat battleship and clipper the men will hit the old tin dipper, and never think of grog. The captain, commodore and purser all know that four-rod is wiser.

VAPOR TREATMENTS FOR COLD TROUBLES

Are now used in all hospitals. The vapors carry the medication to the lungs and air passages without disturbing the stomach. When Vick's "Vap-O-Rub" Croup and Pneumonia Salve is applied over the throat and chest, these vapors—of Menthol, Thymol, Eucalyptol, Camphor, and Pine Tar—are released by the heat of the body. Usually the worst colds go in one night—croup in fifteen minutes. Vick's is fine for head cold, asthma, and catarrh, and is absolutely harmless. Three sizes—from 25c up.

than smallpox or the mumps, but custom kept the store room loaded with that old stuff which has corroded the works of countless chumps. The officers, a gent supposes, will all be joyous when their noses are bleached of crimson stains, they'll fight the country's battles better when jugs and bottles cease to fester their faculties and brains. We're all swelled up about our navy, we all would take our Alfred Drey that it's the best yet born, and we'll be prouder now than ever since it's determined it will sever the bonds of Barleycorn Old Booze, that thing in sin grown hoary, will never bring a country story—will sooner bring eclipse from admiral clear down to cornet, the naval officers should scorn it, and shoot it from their ships.

On Second Thought

The rule is that anonymous letters are written by friends.

A married man attracts no more attention than a baseball player in winter, but a widower stirs up more talk than a good third baseman during the heat of a pennant race.

A well behaved man never knows whether his wife loves him or not. But let him commit a crime and she will not only proclaim her affection, but she will stand by him in a manner to attract the attention and the admiration of the civilized world.

Benefits Which Accrue From Campaign, Are to Be Lasting In Their Effects

As the Board of Trade campaign progresses results are observed of great importance, though collateral to the main object for which it was inaugurated, the raising of a factory fund, to be used for the purpose of inducing new industries to locate in this city.

The direct results are becoming more and more apparent each day, the subscriptions to the fund are being made cheerfully and generously, but the other are deeper and more lasting in their influence upon the characters of the men who are taking an active part in the canvass.

Some of these can be easily enumerated. The work of necessity calls upon the men who are doing it to get out among others, to mingle with their fellows upon the basis of a common interest, and that interest an unselfish one, which causes a keener insight into motives and qualities of character that each possesses, heretofore possibly unknown to the other. The influence of this association is retroactive, broadening in its effects upon the thoughts and actions of all not only toward the proposition at issue, but toward each other.

When the purpose sought to be attained is entirely separate from motives of self-seeking, such as the one now being pushed by the Board of Trade, and the single aim is to benefit each in a development for the good of all, we can have some conception of what a tremendous power is evolved from a crystallization of the sentiments of co-operation instead of destructive and selfish competition.

It can readily be seen that the task assumed by the Board of Trade, which loomed up huge and formidable a few weeks ago, has become to appear easily feasible when the entire community is brought to a realization of the importance of the work to them as individuals, as well as the city as a whole, and come to look at the proposition from the right angle.

It is impossible to measure the aggregate good to be accomplished when a community interest is solidified, and coheres by the mutual attraction of the elements of fairness, enthusiasm, kindness, charity, generosity, and unselfish co-operation.

SECOND PRIZE IN ADVOCATE $3,846 BOOKLOVERS' CONTEST

Detroit, Mich., May 8.—Takes out your watch. Follow the second hand around the minute cycle. Every time it ticks off twenty-four seconds a new Ford card comes into being.

The month of April was another record-breaker at the Ford factory. Thirty thousand, four hundred and two complete cars were built and shipped during the month. A little mental arithmetic shows that this means a daily production of about 1170 cars. It shows that approximately 146 Fords were built each hour.

Of course these figures are based on an eight-hour working day. The assembling department at the Ford factory works but one shift of eight hours. Other departments of the factory work three shifts of eight hours in order to keep the assembling department going at top speed.

The first seven months of the company's fiscal year have seen the production of more than 145,000 complete Model T's. Every succeeding month since the first of the calendar year has seen the Ford factory hand up a new production record. The demand this year for Fords is greater than ever.

COUNTY CLERKS TERMS ARE FOR 2 YEARS ONLY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, May 8.—Terms of county clerks are for two years, as provided by the law of 1906, and not for three years, as specified by the Ohio constitution of 1851, the Franklin county court of appeals decided today. Chief Justice Ferniding presiding. A writ of mandamus to compel Governor Cox and Secretary of State Graves to issue to George N. Young, clerk of courts in Seneca county, a commission for three years, was refused.

The court held that the section of the constitution of 1851 specifying that county clerks shall hold office for three years was repealed by the adoption of the biennial election amendment of 1905.

The case probably will be carried to the Supreme court. It was instituted by the state association of county clerks several months ago to test the law.

In announcing its decision, the court says:

"We are still further confirmed in this view by the action of the general assembly in passing the act of April 2, 1906, and the general acceptance of that act by the relator and the other clerks of courts, as well as by public officials generally for the past eight years."

Former Judge W. Z. David, counsel for the county clerks said today that he would file an appeal from the decision of the court of appeals, in the state supreme court at once.

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With the Othine Prescription.

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine. It is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

COMMENDATIONS FOR AMERICAN ADMINISTRATION

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Vera Cruz, May 8.—The local newspapers published prominently commendations of the American administration in the city for the restoration of order and the stimulation of business. There is great commercial activity everywhere and this is a subject of much gratification to the natives.

The quiet condition in Mexico City is restoring confidence and many Americans having interests in the capital are making a short trip there to clean up their affairs. So far there is no interruption to train service.

The military situation is unchanged and the troops are making themselves comfortable in the quarters that they expect to occupy for some time.

Turn the Baby's Tears to Laughter

A Gentle Baby Laxative will Quickly Relieve the Usual Cause of the Trouble.

It is often difficult to tell just what is the matter with a crying, peevish baby or child too young to express its feelings in words, but as a general rule the mother will find that there is a tendency to constipation, which has brought on a headache or nervousness. The little one has no pain but feels "out of sorts."

The first thing to try is a family remedy containing good but mild laxative properties, and many mothers will say that their choice would be Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Thousands of mothers keep it in the house for such emergencies, among whom may be mentioned Mrs. John Kirch, Jr., 1527 Abstract avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa. She has been giving it successfully to little Walter, whose picture we present at three months, when he weighed 14 1-2 pounds. He is a healthy, laughing youngster today and Mrs. Kirch gladly gives Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin credit. It saves many an illness and many a large doctor bill, for by administering it promptly when the first symptoms of illness are noticed it prevents a serious ailment.

It is so pleasant-tasting that no child will refuse it, and as it does not gripe, the child is glad to take it again. A bottle can be obtained of any druggist for fifty cents or one dollar, the latter being the size bought by families already familiar with its merits. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded. Syrup Pepsin is for all the family from infancy to old age, and because of its mildness families should prefer it over all other remedies. It is absolutely safe and reliable. You will never again give cathartics, pills, salts or such harsh physics, for they are usually unnecessary, and in the case of children, women and elderly people are a great shock to the system, and hence should be avoided.

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it postpaid by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 419 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. A postal card with your name and address on it will do.

He thanked Bonney for his patriotic offer."

IF SKIN BREAKS OUT AND ITCHES APPLY SULPHUR

Use it like a cold cream and dry
Eczema eruptions right up.

The moment you apply bold-sulphur to an itching or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a renowned dermatologist.

This remarkable sulphur made into a thick cream effects such prompt relief, even in aggravated Eczema, that it is a never-ending source of amazement to physicians.

For many years bold-sulphur has occupied a secure position in the treatment of cutaneous eruptions by reason of its cooling, parasite-destroying properties and nothing has ever been found to take its place in relieving irritable and inflammatory affections of the skin. While not always establishing a permanent cure, yet, in every instance, it immediately subdues the itching irritation and heals the Eczema right up and it is often years later before any eruption again manifests itself.

Any good pharmacist will supply an ounce of bold-sulphur cream, which should be applied to the affected parts like the ordinary cold creams. It isn't unpleasant and the prompt relief afforded is very welcome, particularly when the Eczema is accompanied with tortuous itching.

Suffragettes Cease to Be Queens of Home

By Archbishop MOELLER of Cincinnati
Diocese of Roman Catholic Church

ONE of the burning questions of the day is that of woman's suffrage. It is a movement that does not appeal to us because we feel that it will bring women into a sphere of activities that is not in accord with their RETIRING MODESTY, MAIDENLY DIGNITY, AND REFINEMENT.

WE FEAR THAT SUFFRAGETTE WOMEN WILL CEASE TO BE THE QUEENS OF THE HOME.

WE HAVE BEEN ADVISED THAT THE ANTI-SUFFRAGETTES ARE ENDEAVORING TO PREPARE A LIST OF WOMEN WHO ARE OPPOSED TO UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE. IT NOT INFREQUENTLY HAPPENS THAT OWING TO APATHY AND INDIFFERENCE MEASURES HAVE CARRIED THAT HAVE NOT THE POPULAR INDORSEMENT.

Do you really want to heal it? But enough to spend 25c? Then go to the store and buy a box of DR. BELL'S

The Scotch Woolen Mills Co's Editorial

The fewer chances we take in this world, the more peace of mind we shall enjoy.

Buying ready-made guess-fits is taking unnecessary chances, and consequent worry and annoyance for weeks thereafter.

Buying clothes made to order from cloth of your own selection, fashioned the way you fancy, is buying peace of mind, coupled with the absolute assurance of value received.

To have your clothes made to order by us does not involve any greater outlay than getting them dummy-made. So it's up to you to worry your way along or take the smooth path.

For $15.00 we'll make you a good, serviceable suit, from honest American fabrics—a suit that will last you all summer—and then some—give you many styles to select from—and guarantee it to be the equal of any other tailor's outfit at $20.00 to $25.00—and better than a ready-made guess-fit at any old price.

For a few dollars more we'll give you a selection of styles that cost us more per yard—up-to-the-minute fabrics—this kind other tailors ask $10.00 to $15.00 above our price—all the newest shades and colorings.

But no matter what price you want to pay. You can absolutely depend upon the fit, the style, and the workmanship.

The fabrics are what you choose, but the workmanship is our pride—the mainstay of our business—honest, reliable, right.

Come in and let us show you a made up garment, ready for delivery. You'll be surprised at the real value you get for the outlay of a few dollars.

Yours Truly,

MARIETTA EASY FOR DENISON; BLACK A STAR

Granville, May 8.—Outbatted and outfielded, Marietta gave Denison light opposition yesterday afternoon. The visitors were unable to connect with Adams in the punches, while Denison batters always produced the necessary blows when they were needed. Black distinguished himself at the bat, knocking in four runs and counting two. Denison's infield was working to perfection, accepting many hard chances without a wobble. Score:

COOMBS MAY SOON TAKE HIS TURN IN BOX

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Philadelphia, May 8.—John Coombs, pitcher for the Philadelphia American League baseball team who was injured in the world's series of 1911 may be able to take his turn in the box in six of eight weeks according to physicians who examined him yesterday.

The famous pitcher who received the returns of last year's world's series games while lying in a hospital, arrived here on Wednesday from Palestine, Texas. He had been wearing a specially made brace to support his back until about three weeks ago, and wanted a thorough examination of the old injuries before attempting to don his baseball togs again.

The physicians said they found that Coombs is in fine condition and weighs 188 pounds.

They gave him permission to start exercising next week and told him that he could gradually work into playing shape. He will begin by assisting in the work of coaching young pitchers.

THIN BLOOD CAUSES BACKACHE

Every muscle in the body needs a supply of rich, red blood in proportion to the work it does.

The muscles of the back are under heavy strain and have but little rest. When the blood is thin they lack nourishment and rebel. The result is a sensation of pain in those muscles.

The best medical authorities agree that backache seldom or never means kidney trouble. Real organic kidney disease may have progressed to a critical point without developing a pain in the back. Doctors detect its presence by the excretions of the kidney themselves.

Pains in the back should always lead the sufferer to look to the condition of the blood. It will be found in most cases that the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to build up the blood will stop the grumbling of the ill-nourished muscles of the back.

How much better it is to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for the blood than to give way to unreasonable alarm about your kidneys. If you suspect your kidneys, any doctor can make tests in ten minutes that will set your fears at rest or tell you the worst.

All druggists sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. A free book, "Building Up the Blood," will be sent on request by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, May 8.—A bill appropriating $5,000,000 for the construction of good roads probably will be agreed upon by a sub-committee of the Senate postoffice committee. This measure is a substitute for the House bill authorizing an appropriation of $25,000,000 for this purpose. The present plan is to hold a meeting of the sub-committee this week.

The hours were devoted to needlework and a dainty luncheon of two courses was served. The table was prettily arranged with violets, which were clustered in dainty little baskets. Each place card was caught with a bouquet of the spring flowers. The guests of the club were Miss Anna Dold and Mrs. Otis Riggs.

"The Wide and Winding Rhine." From a guidebook published in Frankfort-on-the-Main the following is taken:

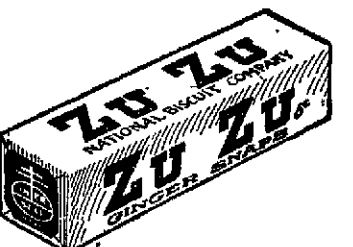

The Rhine, a boundary stone of the German history, is only and solely of its kind. On his banks one meets the vestiges of past civilization, we find there traces of its regeneration and of the modern civilization of which children we are. Various impressions make arise in us so many different sensations, so that a profound enthusiasm gets place in us. On the one hand the works of the hand of art, and on the other the imposing curiosities of nature combine themselves on the banks of the Rhine, crowned by vineyards, to an admirable symphony, in which we are touched all accents shuddering the heart and the powerful accents of the profoundest emotion. Therefore, one cannot be astonished about it, that the Rhine has always given inspirations to many poets to their most celebrated works.

The Cinque Ports.
The lord wardenship of the cinque ports goes back to the Saxon period, when the five ports, Sandwich, Dover, Hythe, Romney and Hastings, constituted an essential part of England's defense against France. The warden was a highly important personage, who exercised civil, military and naval jurisdiction, being at once sheriff, custos rotulorum, lord lieutenant and admiral. Winchester and Rye in later days were added to the five towns, but the name remained cinque ports, as of old. In the days of the first Edward these ports were bound to furnish fifty-seven ships fully equipped and manned at their own cost for fifteen days, in consideration for which they were freed from certain taxes and granted special privileges.—London Standard.

Reporters All Union Men.

Preston (England) newspaper reporters, who to a man are members of the National Union of Journalists, went "on strike" by refusing to report a meeting addressed by James Larkin. The reason for this action was that the organizers of the meeting had advertised that only union journalists showing their union cards would be admitted. They wrote to the organizers of the meeting, informing them that every reporter in the town was a union man, but they would not be deflected. Twenty years ago Preston reporters carried out a successful strike, the first of its kind.

Plan Labor Temple.

Imbued by the general activity throughout the country in the agitation for the building of labor temples, the Danville (Ill.) central body has taken this matter up, and plans and specifications are being prepared for the erection of a labor temple in the city. It is believed that practically every organization in the city will perform its part in assisting to raise the funds necessary to carry out this project.

ARMY AND NAVY CREDIT TO NATION

Entire Country May Well Be Proud of Enlisted Men.

SAILORS' PROMINENT PART.

"Jack Ashore" Proves That He is a Real Fighting Man—Garrison Wisely Reserves Right to Change His Mind at Any Time on Any Subject—Gardner Philosophizes.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, May 8.—[Special.]—Whether it be soldiers, sailors or marines, it is certain that the men who wear the uniform of the United States are sure to give a good account of themselves. These men are always led by trained officers, graduates of West Point or Annapolis or men who have sought commissions from civil life and have the right sort of military spirit to lead properly the men they command.

And the enlisted men in the three different branches of the service are of the kind that are willing to go where they are told or follow where they are led. Whatever may be the outcome of the present situation in Mexico, the country is assured that the men who wear the uniform, officers as well as the rank and file, will be a credit to the country.

Blue Jackets Ashore.

In this connection it may be mentioned that, although the marines figure largely in the dispatches at all times whenever service is required, it is a fact that the sailors—bluejackets they are called—are always prominent in the landing parties.

Down at Vera Cruz the sailors with navy officers in command seem to have been in the fracas to a great extent. There were eleven sailors and three marines killed. Three officers in command of bluejackets were wounded, but no marine officers. Of the enlisted men wounded more than two-thirds were sailors.

So it appears that "Jack ashore" is a fighting man as well as the marine. There have been few occasions where marines are landed for hostile purposes that sailors have not been landed at the same time. It is generally the sailors that go with the machine guns which are always an effective feature of a landing party.

Will Not Be a Prophet.

Secretary Garrison refuses to indulge in any prophecies or forecasts or make any predictions as to what he will do when a given set of circumstances arise. "More than that," he said one day, "I reserve the right to change my mind until I sign my name, and then if I thought it was necessary I would change it if I could get away with it."

Thus the secretary of war puts himself in a class that may be called successful. The man who draws a chalk line and walks to the end, no matter what happens, is almost sure to come to grief. The man who does not find it necessary to change his mind, reverse his opinion, or even reverse his policy, will find himself in trouble in trying to adjust all the differences which arise in a great government like that of the United States.

Brandegee Felt Sheepish.

No one has been complaining more insistently that Senator Brandegee of Connecticut against stuffing the Congressional Record full of letters and telegrams, articles, speeches, essays, etc., etc., and yet upon a demand of his constituents some time ago he was obliged to ask for the reading of a telegram bearing upon the war in Mexico. The Connecticut senator finds that he cannot lay down a hard and fast rule in the senate that will not occasionally be broken.

The Massachusetts Philosopher.

Thus spoke Augustus P. Gardner of Massachusetts, while we were chatting together. Something called to mind the fact that when he first came to congress he reintroduced a bill presented by his predecessor providing for free hides. He told me at the time that it was a bunco game, because he knew there was no possibility of revision of the tariff in that session of congress, and that led him to philosophize.

"As a general thing," said Gardner, "when I am humbugging anybody I know it, even if I am humbugging myself, but in regard to free hides I really humbugged myself into believing my humbug. I really persuaded myself to believe that free hides was a good thing."

Congressman Gardner did not say whether he would vote for free hides if another tariff bill was presented, but he did not need to as the possibility of tariff legislation on the subject is somewhat distant.

Senator West is Interested.

Few senators take as much interest in the proceedings of the senate as Senator West of Georgia. He is serving a short term as the successor of the late Senator Bacon and is not a candidate for re-election. After November, when Georgia elects another senator, he will retire. Meanwhile he is giving as much attention to the proceedings and procedure in the senate as any other member. He does not make long speeches, but he frequently asks questions and expresses his opinion.

The book review doesn't have to be ill to be in a critical condition.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

Take a tablespoonful of Salts if Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headache, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

LOOK IN THE GLASS TODAY

BE HONEST WITH YOURSELF—STUDY THE CAUSE FOR YOUR LOOKS.

"Be honest with yourself," says the Quaker Health Teacher. "What is it that gives you that sallow complexion, those lusterless eyes and furrows on your face, which should be smooth? Probably you think your health is good, but there must be a reason, and more often than not your troubles are caused by a sluggish liver and disordered stomach. A good complexion, a clear skin, a good appetite and a feeling of health and strength are every person's desire, and there is no reason why they should not have them all," says the Quaker Health Teacher, who has been at the City Drug Store for the past four weeks.

A well-known lady living in this city, who does not wish her name published, told me: "I thought I was in fair health, but kept getting thinner and thinner. I was so yellow that I thought my complexion must be gone forever. I was troubled with pimples on my face and was told that the life and sparkle had left my eyes; felt dull and listless; getting up in the morning more tired than when I lay down at night. I am a mother and believe I love my family as much as anyone can, but I found I was getting cross with my children and snappy with my husband. It took me some time to realize this but when I did I thought there must be a cause. I had been reading of the cures that the Quaker Herb Extract has been making and some people I am acquainted with concluded to give it a trial. Now, in less than three weeks, my husband and children are once more glad to meet me with kisses and my friends exclaim when we meet them: 'How well you look!'"

"You may rest assured that I will always speak well of the Quaker Herb Extract. It has done so much for me." Don't put off any longer, but get started on the road to health today. The Quaker Remedies can be obtained at Quaker Headquarters, The City Drug Store, Third and Main streets, Newark, O. The Health Teacher is there from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Call and have a talk with him; it costs you nothing and if you suffer with rheumatism, catarrh, kidney, liver, stomach, bladder or blood troubles, indigestion, constipation, start today; get well. The Quaker Herb Extract will cure you the same as it has cured hundreds of others. If you cannot call, order by mail. On receipt of the price, they will send to you by express. Quaker Herb Extract, $1, or three for $2.50; Oil of Balm, 50c; Salve for Old Sores, Piles, Hemorrhoids, 25c; Cough Syrup, 25c. Send post-office or express money orders. He proves what he says.

The Markets

Chicago Market.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Chicago, May 8.—Wheat developed firmness today in sympathy with the comparative strength shown at Liverpool despite the bearish crop report from Washington. The continued advance by other European markets furnished additional help to the bulls. Trade, here, however, was light. The opening varied from 1-8 off to 1-8@1-4 up, with prices later gradually hardening all around. Wet weather relay to planting brought about a slight bulge in corn. The effect, though, was not of a lasting sort. Initial sales were unchanged to 1-4 higher, and there was a little further gain before the market began to react.

Oats were governed by corn. Commission houses generally turned sellers after the market had made an upturn. Slowness of trade at the yards made a heavy feeling in regard to provisions. Transactions were at 2-12 to 10c decline and there was a subsequent further setback.

CRISIS
that became necessary. Probably fifty thousand or sixty thousand men would be required.

While the meeting of the general staff today the mediators proceeded steadily with the program for their conference with representatives of the Huerta government and the United States at Niagara Falls, Canada May 18. Announcement of the personnel of the American mission was expected to be made within the next few days. Among several names heard as possible members of the delegation were Justices Day and

"Time of the Supreme Court, circuit judge Gray of Delaware, and counsel for Lansing of the state department. Rumor also had it that the south American envoys intended to wage a constitutionalist issue in the Mexican problem were confirmed today. It was said that despite the self elimination of Carranza from mediation preliminaries, the rebel side of the situation will be taken up in plans for Mexico's pacification.

How far execution of that plan might proceed remained problematical. Nevertheless the envoys continued hopeful despite Carranza's declaration that he considered any attempt to settle Mexico's internal troubles as beyond the range of diplomatic activity.

Army officials today were anxious to make no move that might embarrass the progress of preliminary mediation negotiations. However they were known to be desirous of preparedness for any eventuality. Army officers feared the situation at Vera Cruz might become desperate at the event of an anarchistic outbreak in Mexico City or should the federal forces hovering beyond Funston's outposts launch an attack in respect of Huerta's declaration of a truce with the United States.

Bluejackets could be landed to enforce the seven thousand troops and marines under General Funston there should be a federal attack. They could easily hold the city proper, it is believed, but to protect positions outside the town up to the site of the waterworks, more infantry is believed to be required. Whether additional forces would be sent down the east coast could not be foreseen today. The president and Secretary Bryan are believed to oppose any military activity at this time that might embarrass the south American envoys.

Outside the continued heavy fighting at Mazatlan there were no reports of additional rebel aggression today. The three main constitutionalist forces were preparing for the next blow in their campaign while Carranza moved his seat of government from Chihuahua to Torreon. Villa, rebel chief, informally appealed for a suspension of the embargo on arms at Rio Grande ports. He was quoted as asserting that would hasten Mexico's pacification.

Rumors of the fighting at Mazatlan crystallized into a report that the town had fallen into the rebels' hands. Constitutionalists at Juarez, however, did not credit it. A spectacular feature of the battle was the hurling of a bomb from a rebel aeroplane. It fell into a street of the besieged city, killing four persons and wounding eight.

Banks report merely their assets and liabilities. Building Associations must do this AND report all receipts and expenditures, literally account for every penny taken in or paid out.

ment to negotiate further regarding the protest against American military operations was said to be probable by those in close touch with the mediation developments. When the United States would reply to the envoys note was not made known. President Wilson is said to have been informed last night of the Huerta government's communication and it is expected that the subject would be considered at the cabinet meeting today.
Officials point out that neither the United States nor General Huerta has yet entered into any formal armistice. What occurred was this: "The mediators suggested that hostilities should be suspended during the period of negotiations; to this Secretary Bryan replied that it was assumed there would be a suspension of hostilities, except to repel attack. General Huerta's answer was understood to be an acceptance, but the exact terms have not been given out. Mr. Bryan has several times pointed out that this did not constitute a formal armistice, but only an assumption that hostilities would be suspended except to resist aggression.

CRISIS

speckle on troop movement pending mediation, as follows:

Article VIII, the acceptance of mediation, cannot, unless there be an agreement to the contrary, have the effect of interrupting, delaying, or hindering mobilization or other measures, or preparation for war.

"If mediation occurs after the commencement of hostilities, it causes no interruption to the military operations in progress unless there be an agreement to the contrary."

To what extent the present suspension at Vera Cruz, operates under these rules appear, therefore to depend largely on the construction of the informal understanding that it was assumed hostilities would be suspended except to repel attack.

Leading authorities on international law hold that an armistice, truce or suspension of hostilities, should be definite and exact, and not implied. One of the leading authorities Halleck, says:

"Such a general suspension of hostilities can only be made by the sovereignty of the state, either directly or by authority specially delegated. Such authority is never implied, and the enemy is bound to see that the agent is specially authorized to bind his principle."

When an armistice is formally agreed to, the authorities hold that "during its pendency neither party may engage in any military work, operation, or movement, at least upon the immediate theater of war."

This, however, is limited to the "theater of war" as it is added, "each party may in its own jurisdiction do with its armed forces whatever it could do in time of peace. Fortifications could be built or put in order, vessels fitted out, troops raised and trained, warlike stores manufactured and collected. Troops can be moved from one part of a country to another, with the exception of the actual area of hostilities."

This latter applies only when a formal armistice is in operation and it is an open question as to what the condition is when there is no formal armistice but only an assumption that hostilities will be suspended except to repel attack.

Great representations were made by the state department today through the Brazilian embassy to the Huerta government seeking the release of Vice Consul John R. Sullivan who is reported held by the Mexican federalists at Saltillo. Consul Sullivan was reported taken by the Huerta forces while on a trip to San Luis Potosi and all efforts of the state department to locate him so far have been futile. The Sullivan incident added to the general feeling of apprehension about the state department.

In reply the South American mediators have wired it is announced, that they will make representations regarding the matter to President Wilson.

The foreign office has issued a statement thanking the mediators. It says: "The Mexican government, in view of the mediators' attitude in the case of the Carranzista refusal to suspend hostilities and the new landing of American troops and war material in Vera Cruz, is much obliged for the prudence, impartiality and good willingness of the mediators."

REFUGEE TRAIN ARRIVES.
Washington, May 8.—Consul Canada reports that he has word from the Brazilian minister that the refugee train from Mexico City has arrived at Cordoba. The refugees are to be taken on board the steamship Esperanza at Puerto Mexico. It is stated that H. W. Thompson, J. Starr Hunt and Burton Wilson are safe and are American whose name was not learned and who was arrested in Mexico City has been released.

WILL NOT ADMIT RECEIVING ORDERS.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, May 8.—Neither Gov. Cox, nor Adjutant General George H. Wood, would admit they had received any message from Washington today regarding possible movement of the Ohio national guard. The governor said he knew nothing to indicate a call of the guard more than has been possible at any time in the last few weeks. Adjutant General Wood said the guard is ready at any time and could be mobilized within 24 hours. No special preparations are being made however, he declared.

Madame Isebell's Beauty Lesson

LESSON XI—PART VII.
PHYSICAL CULTURE.

Make Exercise of Sweeping.

Sweeping can be made a valuable exercise if correctly done. Do not dig the broom into the carpet, but sweep the surface of it with light, swift movements, keeping the body poised always on the balls of the feet. When a carpet is so dirty that this method of sweeping is not sufficient, use a vacuum cleaner on it, or have it taken up and shaken by men. Shaking heavy rugs is not woman's work.

Stand Properly.

A great deal of housework must be done on the feet. Remember, then, to rest heavily on them or drag them does not relieve but only increases fatigue. I have known women do as much of their work as possible out of doors. Housework in Europe has far fewer conveniences than is the case in this country, but those that do it are never too busy to take their work out of doors. The housewife must remember that no amount of exercise within four walls will compensate for lack of outdoor life.

Housework is hard work, but so long as it is within the measure of one's physical strength, it can be done with profit to one's physical well-being. The woman who sits down at the dinner table so tired that "she cannot eat" has either been wasting her strength, or else her untrained muscles are not physically able to do the work asked of them. In either case, whether it is to gain strength or to use her strength more wisely, she needs some amount of physical culture.

Lesson XI to be continued.

Madame Isebell

DANDRUFF SOON RUINS THE HAIR

Makes It Itch, Dull, Dry, Brittle and Thin.

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will be silky, fluffy, lustrous, soft and look and can mediate that American troops were landing in Vera Cruz and that other preparations were in progress there, thus breaking the armistice.

In reply the South American mediators have wired it is announced, that they will make representations regarding the matter to President Wilson.

The foreign office has issued a statement thanking the mediators. It says: "The Mexican government, in view of the mediators' attitude in the case of the Carranzista refusal to suspend hostilities and the new landing of American troops and war material in Vera Cruz, is much obliged for the prudence, impartiality and good willingness of the mediators."

"Cherry Hill" Farm's Great Orchards Of 25,000 Trees An Attractive Industry

High up on the great sloping hillside overlooking the Licking narrows and historic Black Hand rock where one of the first electric railway tunnels in the world penetrates tall ledges of solid rock, a few days ago might be seen what appeared the last remnant of a winter snow storm. The whole width of the broad hillside was a mass of purest white. Sometimes when the wind was in the right direction, passengers on the interurban line could catch the faint odor of a delicious perfume wafted from the great "snowfield."

But it wasn't a snow field after all. It was a huge orchard of 4,200 early and late Richmond and Dye-house cherry trees, on the most extensive fruit orchard farm in this section of the country.

Beautiful "Cherry Hill" farm is a 400-acre tract owned by Edward H. Everett, president of the American Bottle company. It is situated three fourths of a mile from Black Hand station.

Of the 400 acres, fifty represent hardwood timber; land thickly grown with chestnut, beech, hickory and oak. The balance of the acreage accommodates 25,000 handsome young orchard trees. Here is the list:

3,000 apple trees
4,200 cherry trees
2,000 pear trees
2,000 quince trees
3,000 plum trees
12,800 peach trees

Some orchard isn't it?

Not only that, but it is undoubtedly the most scientifically managed, planted and cultivated of any fruit farm in this part of the country. It is under direct care of Mr. H. A. Albyn, an expert in his line, engaged for the purpose by Mr. Everett. Mr. Albyn is able assisted by Mr. Ira Major, the farm foreman, and a corps of helpers varying in number as the season demands.

There is everything necessary to make the farm a success, from a branch government weather station, installed through the activities of J. Warren Smith, of the state weather bureau, to 5,000 "smudge-pots" or orchard heaters designed to protect the trees and drive off old King Frost on chilly nights. Near the residence occupied by Superintendent Albyn and snuggled down in a cleft in the hillside, is a splendid spring of purest water. In front of this spring is built a monster concrete cold storage building, tunnel-shaped, through which the ice-cold water runs in a full stream after bubbling down over ornamental rock shelves set back in the natural grotto which shelters the spring.

Here is where the fruit is packed and sorted.

Farther back on the hill stands the cannery. It is a long, low structure completely equipped with canning machinery with which to "put up" the fruit which is found to be in excess of the ready market supply.

But this isn't altogether an orchard farm. They raise a few other products on Cherry Hill. For instance, last year there was but little canning; the supply was short and the market went up closely, but the year before there were 2,500 cases of tomatoes put on the market from Cherry Hill. Green beans, too, were produced in abundance. In 1912 the farm produced approximately 10,000 quarts of these beans. Fifty children were given employment picking them. This year about ten acres will be grown and canned.

Last year there were 500 bushels of potatoes raised on the potato patch at Cherry Hill.

And here's a striking thing to be observed on the farm: There is scarcely a square foot of cleared ground that is not utilized and placed under cultivation.

One may obtain some conception of the extent of this utilization of rich farm land when it is known that interspersed through these 350 acres of orchard are—

Three acres of blackberries.
Five acres of black raspberries.
6,000 gooseberry bushes.
8,000 currant bushes.
1,500 grapevines, covering three acres.

Nowhere in Ohio, at least, is there a more varied assortment of ornamental shrubbery than on Cherry Hill farm.

There are in the neighborhood of fifty distinct kinds of garden and decorative shrubbery now growing there.

Much of this assortment comes in the form of samples from the Everett country home in Bennington, Vt., where an even larger variety is under cultivation.

The good farmer, the skilled agriculturist, doesn't wonder at the great assortment of products raised on the big orchard tract, because he knows it is all a part of the great scheme of scientific farming, all tending to enrich the ground and add to its productiveness.

On Cherry Hill farm may be found a genuine freak of nature, a curiosity of great interest to the nature student. It is a natural graft found in an iron-wood tree by Farm Foreman Major.

One branch of this tree has doubled itself back until its free end has grown solidly into the body of one of the main limbs of the tree. The only explanation for the curiosity is that the limb in some manner became imbedded in the fork of the branches and was held there until it grew back to the main limb.

The cultivation of this big orchard farm is a matter of great painstaking, as one naturally would suspect.

In the first place, in order to handle such a project the superintendent and his assistants must be thoroughly equipped for all sorts of emergencies and they must be particularly well prepared for the tricks of the weather man.

To accomplish this, a chart of the farm shows a series of blocks, giving the location and number of each tree in a block. From this chart a workman may report to the foreman any difficulty with a tree, and by consulting the chart the director knows at once just which tree he must treat and where to find it. Thus, the entire orchard is individualized, as it were.

Then there is the weather station, with daily telegraphic exchange reports with the state weather bureau. This sub-station is equipped with all instruments for measuring maximum and minimum temperatures; a recorder on a clock register, showing the actual temperature at any minute of the day, and a register of precipitation.

Twice last week the weather chart readings, with telegrams from the state weather bureau, probably resulted in saving these big orchards immediately when the warning came a half dozen men were assigned to sections of the orchards with instructions to fire up the oil tanks, or orchard heaters. These burned all of two nights, and undoubtedly resulted in great saving to the fruit crop.

The dormant spray used is a one-gallon solution of lime and sulphur to ten gallons of water. The dormant spray, or 1-to-40, is one gallon of the solution to forty gallons of water.

Twenty stands of honey bees on Cherry Hill farm add to the germination of these thousands of orchard trees, by the activities of the little workers in distributing the pollen. Nineteen stands wintered on Cherry Hill, and the twentieth swarm arrival this spring, in April. Ten of these stands inhabit the cherry orchard.

An industrious cultivation is followed throughout the orchard land, between the long straight rows of trees the year through. Rye is sown between the rows for a winter cover crop and also a great amount of clover seed, but no timothy. These crops, decaying and mixing their natural properties with the soil serve to enrich it, but in addition, until this year, carloads of manure were shipped to the orchard farm for fertilizing.

For the layman as well as the agriculturist, Cherry Hill farm is a spot of wonderful interest. Its natural beauty, surrounded as it is by the great rolling hills, its fertility and the completeness of its equipment, all go toward making it an ideal place for growing the products for which there is such a great market, the country over.

The bulk of the orchard cultivation represents about ten years' growth and care. It is just now coming to the place where its productiveness is going to mean much to local markets, and it is not unlikely that the next few years will witness a remarkable development of the canning industry on Cherry Hill. Here quality, quantity and variety may be found, marking it as one of Ohio's foremost agricultural specialty farms.
